

Gérard GIRAUDON

Research Director, Inria

Ph.D. in Applied Mathematics, University Nice Sophia Antipolis (1979)
Accreditation to Supervise Research (HDR), 1991

Research

Dr. Giraudon's research concerns the field of computer vision (segmentation, modeling, knowledge-based systems), which he has applied to cartography and robotics. He has published approximately 100 scientific articles and supervised a dozen Ph.D. students.

Positions held

2006-present	Director, Inria Sophia Antipolis-Mediterranean Research Center
1999-2006	Director of Development and Industrial Relations, Inria
1998-2000	Director of Scientific Information and Communication, Inria
1997-1999	Deputy Director of Industrial Relations, Inria
1994-1996	National Coordinator of Industrial Relations, Inria
1989-1994	Industrial Relations Manager for Sophia Antipolis, Inria
1984-1997	Researcher (PASTIS project), Inria
1980-1984	R&D Engineer, Sintra Alcatel

Academic Activities

Member, Executive Board, University Nice Sophia Antipolis
Member, Executive Board, University of the Côte d'Azur
President, Persan Association
Coordinator, Corpaca network (Conference of Research Agencies of the Côte d'Azur)
Member, "Archimède" PACA Scientific Culture Network

Industrial activities

President, EducAzur Association
President, Leaders club of Sophia Antipolis
President, PACA Est Incubator
Member, Executive Board, SCS Competitiveness Cluster
Member, Executive Board, Telecom Valley
Co-founder of ISTAR (startup, Sophia Antipolis)

Distinctions

Knight of the National Order of Merit